Mum: Dad is coming home next week. Let's give him a surprise!

Ben: OK, Mum. But what can we do?

Mum: Let's move the furniture!

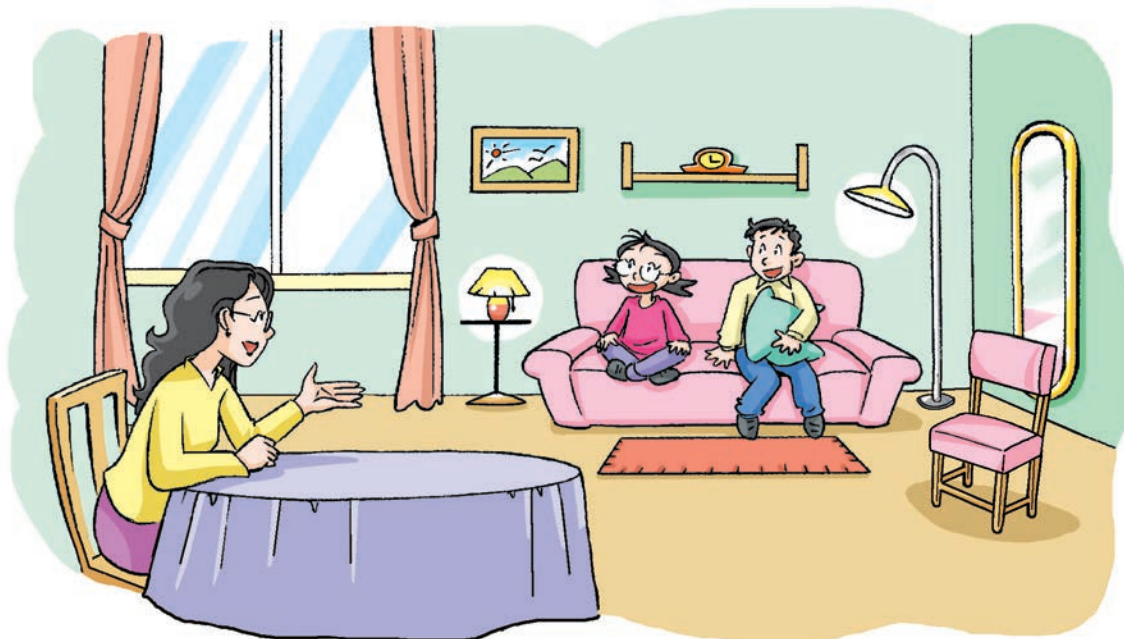

Kitty: Sounds fun.

Mum: Let's put the sofa under the window first.

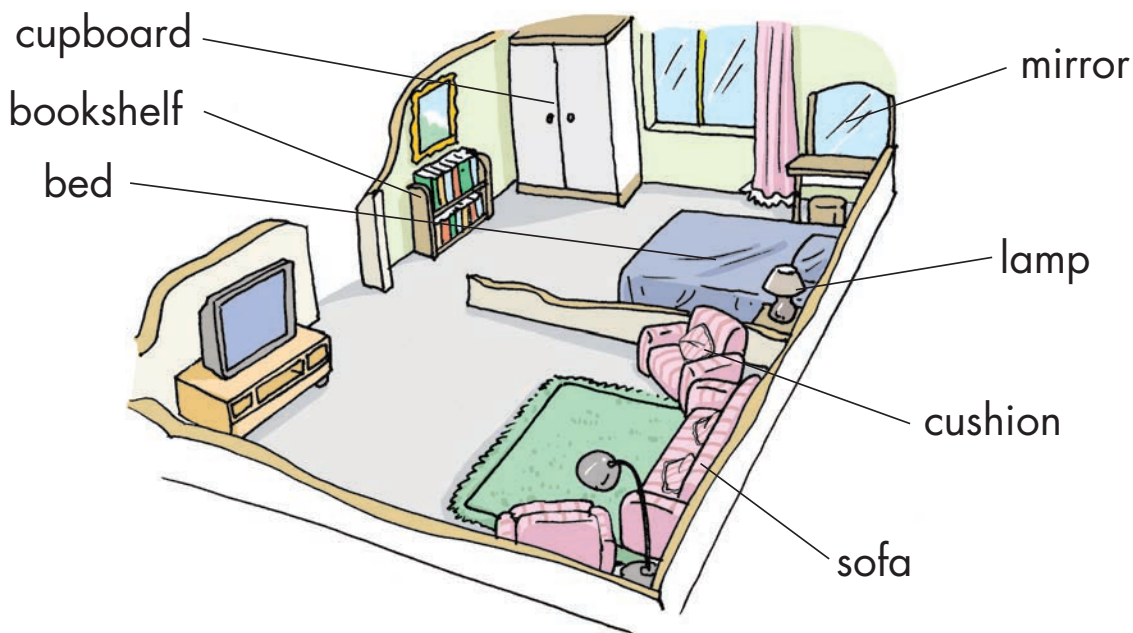

Ben: Great. And we can put the table next to the wall.

Kitty: Let's move the picture and the lamps too.

Mum: Yes, let's do that.

Dad comes home. He is surprised. The living room looks different!

Kitty: Dad, are there any changes in our living room?

Dad: Yes! The sofa was under the shelf. Now it's under the window.

Kitty: You're right. What else?

Dad: The clock was on the shelf. Now it's on the small table.

Kitty: Right! What else?

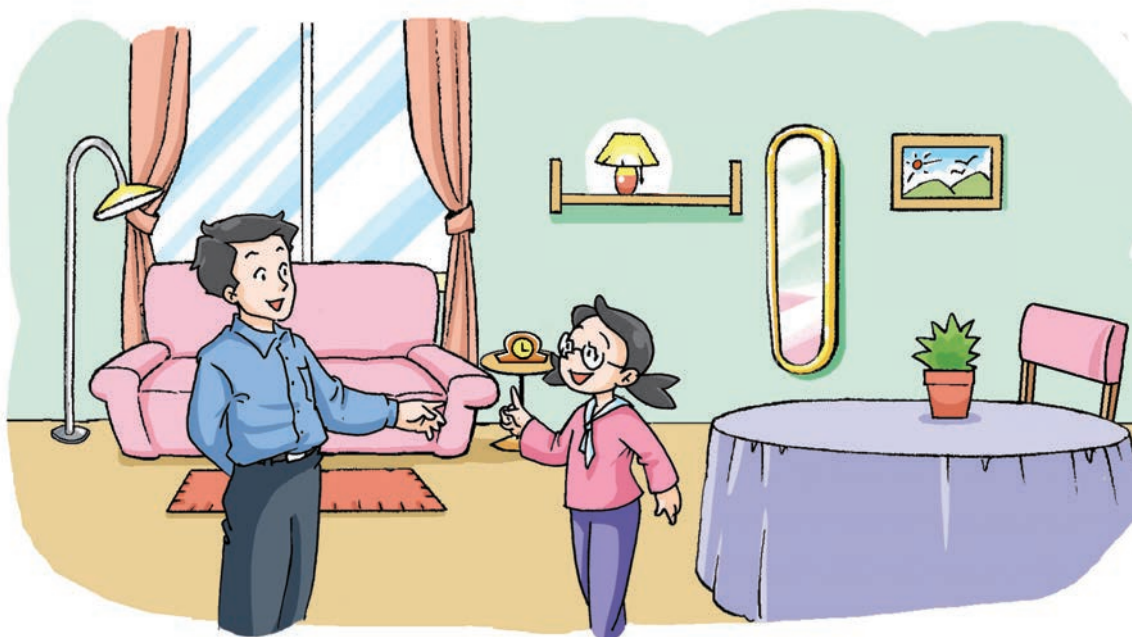

Dad: The mirror was behind the chair. Now it's next to the shelf.

Kitty: Wow, Dad, you're right again.

Dad: Wait. The picture is now next to the mirror. Where was it? I can't remember.

Kitty: It was next to the window, Dad.

Dad: Ah, yes!

➤ Western holidays

Listen and say

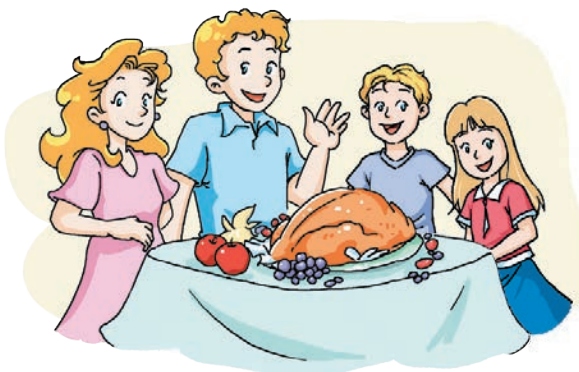

1

Christmas is on the 25th of December. It is an important festival in many Western countries. People usually give presents to each other at Christmas. They also like to decorate a tree and put it up in their homes. On Christmas Eve, children wait for presents from Father Christmas.

2

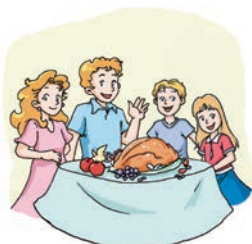

Thanksgiving is on the fourth Thursday in November in the US. It is a special holiday. People often travel far to be with their families for Thanksgiving Day. They usually eat turkey and pumpkin pie at the Thanksgiving meal. They also talk about their favourite moments of the last year.

Dashing through the snow
In a one-horse open sleigh,
Over the fields we go,
Laughing all the way.
Bells on bobtails ring,
Making spirits bright,
What fun it is to ride and sing
A sleighing song tonight.

Jingle bells, jingle bells,
Jingle all the way.
Oh, what fun it is to ride
In a one-horse open sleigh.

The giant's garden

1

Long long ago, a giant lived in the castle. He had a beautiful garden. One day, the giant went out. Some children came and played in his garden. They had a good time.

2

The giant came back and saw the children. He was very angry. 'Get out!' he shouted. The children were afraid and ran away.

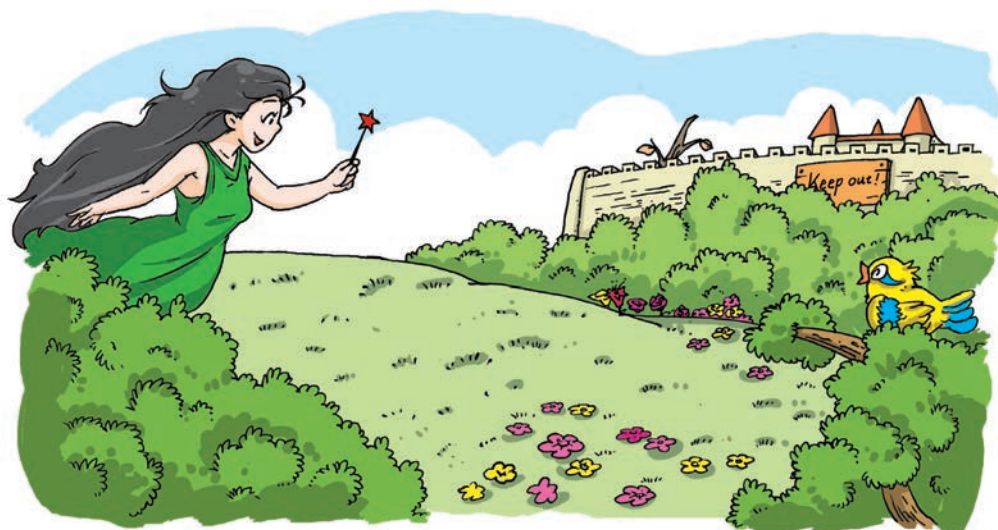

3

The giant built a tall wall all around the garden and put up a sign. Then the children could not play in his garden.

4

Miss Spring arrived. She brought beautiful flowers and birds. But she saw the sign on the giant's castle, so she did not go there.

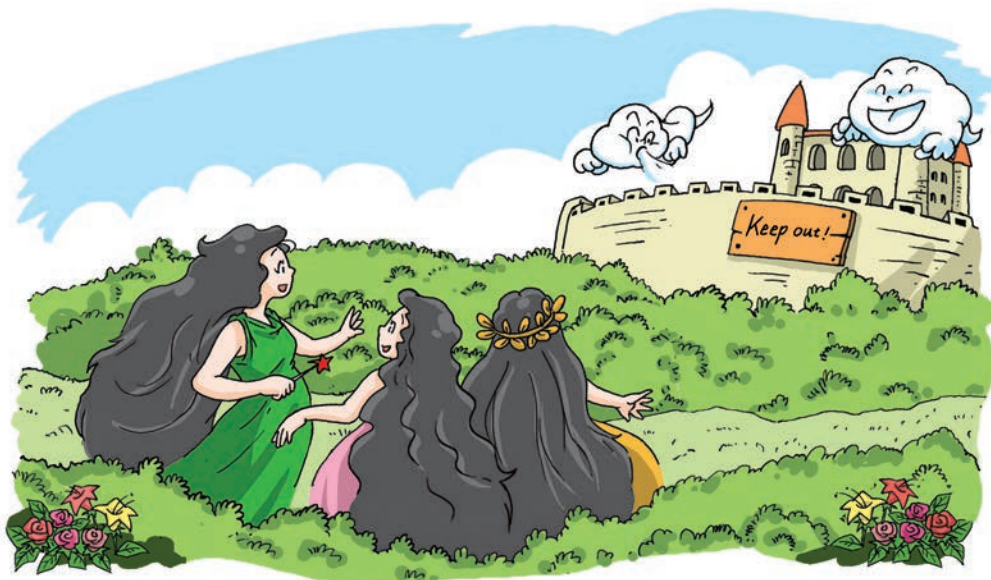

5

It's so cold. Why did Miss Spring not come this year?

The giant looked at his garden. There was snow everywhere. He felt very cold and very sad.

6

Then, Miss Summer and Miss Autumn did not come to the castle either. Miss Winter stayed in the giant's garden all year.

7

One morning, the giant heard some lovely sounds from his garden. He smelt the flowers too. 'Spring is here at last!' he thought. The giant was happy and looked out of the window.

8

He saw some children. They came into the garden through a hole in the wall. They brought Miss Spring into his garden!

'Let me break down the wall. You can play in my garden forever and ever,' the giant said to the children. From then on, Miss Spring, Miss Summer and Miss Autumn never came late again.
